

4 C's of Learning for Life

| CAPABLE | COMPASSIONATE | CONFIDENT | CHRISTIAN |
|--|--|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Individualized reading levels • Leveled math classes • Resource teacher • SEEK program • Title I, Reading, Speech & Language • Challenging curriculum with emphasis on problem solving • STEM activities,robotics • Specialty classes • Public speaking opportunities • Chapels • Writing labs, math labs, science labs • HS credit opportunities • Full athletic program • Leadership opportunities • Recognition for hard work, academic success • Project based learning • Cooperative group learning • Math fairs, science fairs, • Discipline system based on respect • Teach “how to learn” not “how to pass a test” | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Community service projects • Buddy program • 100% response practice to conflicts • Emphasis on respect and responsibility for one’s actions • Prayer in the classrooms and at chapel • Principal Awards to recognize kindness • Partnership with local organizations (Boca Helping Hands, Family Promise,...) • Recognizing soldiers and first responders • Recognize you are special but not more important | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Challenging curriculum with appropriate support • Leadership opportunities in a variety of areas – sports, class room, academics, clubs, cooperative groups,... • Recognition of effort • Recognition of differing gifts talents, and skills • Performance opportunities – choir, drama, sports, talent show, • Variety of activities to encourage growth and finding a specific interest (passion) • Guidance, correction and consequences vs. punitive action or punishment • Allow failure as an option, but not as a landing point | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prayer • Religion curriculum • Chapels • Recognize self as child of God - valuable • Celebrate Christmas and Easter • Use Biblical principles in addressing issues • Pastors involved in religion classes • Staff & student devotion • Church partnership |